We believe Casey Prince and his wife Sarah are great examples of people who fight for a better world. And that's why they are our nominee of the week for the David Award.

Casey and Sarah Prince are American missionaries who are serving in Cape Town, South Africa. They, along with their children, have founded the Ubuntu Football Academy.

THE MANDATE OF UBUNTU FOOTBALL IS:
Mentor and educate the next generation of great African leaders, society-changers and footballers.

Since 2009 they have been active in local communities helping people who are neglected by society, and giving them the opportunity to develop physically, intellectually, and spiritually.

We want to celebrate people who have great endurance in the face of extraordinary odds and we know they are everywhere.

If you have in your life or community someone who possesses attributes such as fearlessness, humility, compassion, loyalty, bravery, honor... don't hesitate to nominate them for this award.

Find someone in your life or community who acts like a David and submit your nominees for the "David Award"

Here's how...

1) Create a post on Facebook or Instagram

2) Tag us
