HEAD OF STORY - NATHAN STANTON

In over twenty years working at Pixar, Nathan was involved in amazing projects that included Finding Nemo, Monster Inc, Incredibles 2, and many more. He has since expanded his portfolio, and now works on several different animated and live-action projects, in addition to story consulting on the Netflix documentary 'Crip Camp.' While doing all of this, he is also acting as Head of Story on David for Sunrise Productions.

With its unique appeal, David's story has captivated many people, including Nathan. He understands that this story is sacred to millions of people and has endured for millennia, and that's why he can't wait to share it with the world.

Meet Renee Cunningham.

She is the co-founder of the Ebenezer Trust, and has dedicated her life to helping people grow and reach their full potential.

The work Renee and her team does at Ebenezer equips young people to live their lives more fully and in alignment with their strengths. With the skills acquired there, these apprentices have a chance to become better farmers, business people and thinkers.

We admire her efforts and believe she represents the kindness and courage needed to face the most extraordinary odds.

Animation is our language. It takes us beyond limitations and allows us to speak to any age group, culture or ethnicity.

As filmmakers, we want to celebrate and inspire the best elements of the human spirit through original and uplifting stories.

Our journey is exciting and unconventional, so if you want to know more about it and how we plan to bring "David" to the world, join us in this conversation with Jeff Harmon, one of the founders of Angel Studios, who also knows a thing or two about taking on challenges and making extraordinary things.
